Dear Monica,

How nice it was to be able to work with you on those last Airstream trailer brochure projects. You are such a great photographic resource for them. Some day you will need to tell me the whole story of how that came to be.

To have an Airstream owner who is also a talented professional as you is a great combination. Your photography added an authentic air to the brochures. I hope we will have a chance to work together again in the near future.

In the meantime, happy trails!

Regards,
